

- Home
- Public Lecture: Prophet Muhammad as a Model for Approaching Diversity in the 21st Century

Events

- Print
- Download PDF

Public Lecture: Prophet Muhammad as a Model for Approaching Diversity in the 21st Century

23Apr2017

- 07:00 PM - 09:00 PM
- Auditorium, College of Islamic Studies Building, Education City
- Georgetown
- HBKU
- Jonathan Brown
- Prophet Muhammad
- Islam
- legacy
- pluralism
- global diversity
- nationalism

For many years, media has been encouraging globalized diversity. But recent surges in nationalistic ideologies have revealed how fragile these claims may be.

The lecture will explore Prophet Muhammad's legacy in managing real pluralism in various communities, highlighting Islamic values and guidance.

It will be delivered by Professor Jonathan Brown, Prince Alwaleed Bin Talal Chair of Islamic Civilization, and director of the Prince Alwaleed Bin Talal Center for Muslim-Christian Understanding at Georgetown University.

CONTACT INFO

- cis.hbku.edu.qa